

Susan Myers Geisler

January 14, 1945 - September 24, 2023

Susan M. Geisler of Grasonville, Maryland, passed away in her home on Sunday, September 24th, 2023 after a long battle with pulmonary fibrosis caused by rheumatoid arthritis, defying all odds.

She was born in Baltimore on January 14th, 1945, the third child of Glen C. Myers Sr. and Mary Kathrine (Smith) Myers.

After graduating high school in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, Sue attended Millersville University where she earned her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education which was the beginning of her life's work as an educator. Years later, she added a master's degree in education from Bowie State to her professional credentials. Sue's career spanned more than forty years, most of it for the Anne Arundel County public school system. She was a classroom teacher and a math resource teacher, and for many summers she ran the summer program at Arlington Echo.

She eventually retired, but her family and friends can attest to the fact that she never stopped being an educator. After a lifetime devoted to education, Sue certainly deserves an afterlife tailor-made of the things that brought her the most joy. It would be a fantastic beach-world inhabited by snowmen and giraffes, where she could endlessly 'hunt' for arrowheads, then later sit down at a table heaped with 'heavy' crabs and cold Stella Artois, all to a soundtrack of children playing.

Susan is survived by her husband Robert E. Geisler; son Jeffrey Rogge of Columbia; son Robert J. Geisler and his wife Jessica (nee Most) of Ellicott City and their daughters, Evelyn, Josephine, and Olivia; daughter Katherine (Denny) Watson her husband Ian, and their son James of Preston. Her sister, Marilyn Haar of Camp Hill, Pennsylvania; and her brother Glen C. Myers jr. of Newark, Delaware. She will be missed by her family and the many friends who will now never be able to beat her at playing either racquetball or Scattergories.

A gathering in her memory will be held Thursday, November 9th from 2 until 4 p.m. at the Fellows, Helfenbein, & Newnam Funeral Home in Chester, Maryland.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that a donation be made to your favorite charity in memoriam of Susan.
