“ Dear Kristen, Eric, and Greg,
I am so sorry that I did not know until just yesterday about your precious mother and sister's passing. She was so very special; any words I could write just would not be adequate. Always positive, always making me laugh. I have such fond memories of sitting on the radiator in the kitchen of your old house in Greensboro while Susan made chocolate chip cookies for Christmas. She loved making those Christmas cookies! So many other memories, so many of them of me laughing at something she said. She was so VERY, VERY proud of you, Kristen and Eric. You both were the light of her life. May it give you some measure of peace knowing that she is truly "home" with her Lord AMD your dad; how she loved them both! I have no doubt she is cutting up in heaven, making them laugh up there as well. Farewell sweet friend, until we meet again on the other side. Save us a spot!
All my love,

“ My sincere condolences and deepest sympathy to your entire family. My memories of Susan go back when Ms. Betty and Mr. Howard Cole ran the store in Crumpton. Susan and the Cole family touched my life (and many others) in ways that brought the community together in good times and in challenging moments. I'm sadden of her loss and pray that God comforts and blesses you knowing that her life (along with her mom, dad and sister) truly made a difference for the brief period of time we were honored by their kindness, caring and love. God bless them one and all.###imported-begin###Dr. Robert D. Pratt###imported-end##
