“ Butch,Chrissy.Mrs. Edna.Kevin and children....

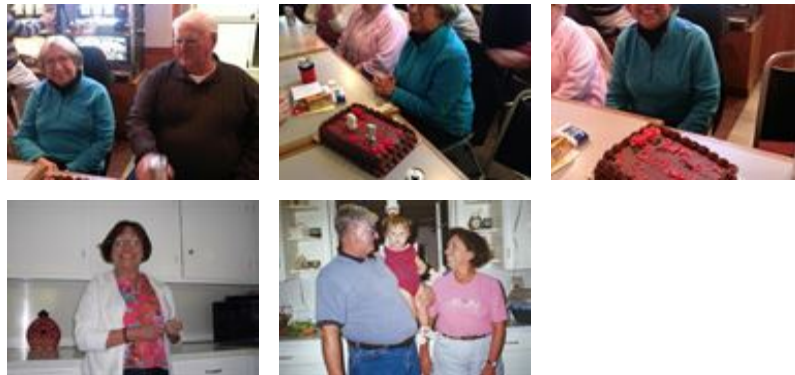

I am so sorry for your loss.Susan left her mark on this town for sure,with her beautiful smile and laugh.She was a lot of fun to be around,but also had a Serious side to her.we had many conversations over politics and she would gracefully listen to another's opinion.but before we parted she always spoke about her views.I enjoyed talking with her because Susie knew what she was talking about.She will be missed for sure.i am always here if I can do anything for you.I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers

“ My deepest condolences to the family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Susan again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"

“ Help me O' Lord, As i read of Susie's Passing. I sit here, stare at her photograph, soak in her smile and Of course her humor of showing her winning hand. We will all go with the lord one day (I Hope that's my case but have my doubt's),

It's with that little hint of humor, that i pray to put even a hint of a twinkle in Susie's Families eyes, as she has mine over the years. As a young man, raised on Spring Cove, right down the street from Susie's parents, I remember Susie's mom working in the yard, pulling weeds, i would ride past on my bike, Mrs. Cox Always stopping to chat, smile and make me feel like i was important, although nothing more than a kid.

Susie, any time i would run into her, would make me feel as strong and steadfast as a young man. I remember the last time i saw her, one evening at the Harbor shack, She, Butch and others. I was invited to the table. We shared politics, she had her view, i had mine, she talked her talk and within minutes, talked me into her view, lol. We laughed, everyone knew that her laugh was contagious.

I loved and appreciated her, as an extended sister, not much older than I.

Butch, Chrissy, Mrs. Cox and to all family, extended family and friends; My thoughts, prayers and condolences are with you, during your time of sadness and loss. Please know, as i know you do, That Susie touched us all. She will be missed by so many, however her memory will stay in our hearts forever more.
