“ The Tribute Video was so touching. It made me go back to our younger years when Suzanne and her family came to Hull (her birth town) some 45 years ago for summer vacation. We had such good times with Suzanne, her brothers and the Laramee & Lalonde cousins!!
I will cherish those memories preciously.

“ I met Suzanne 15 years ago when we formed a playgroup for our 2 year old sons. We quickly discovered we were both transplants from Annapolis, Maryland, and were so glad to have found each other. It was our shared new lives in a rural setting with young sons that brought us together. Our sons grew, and began to host sleepovers for one another and eventually played rec and high school football together. It truly saddens us to hear the news of Suzanne's death! She was a treasured member of our community, and a great friend. We had not seen each other in recent years due to our busy lives. RIP Suzanne. We will see you in Heaven someday. Our prayers are with Bob, Matt and Suzanne's extended family at this time.
