“ Terri you were the best. From my early years exhibiting at the Waterfowl festival to the last time you came to say hi at the show. You would wrap that wonderful smile and those caring eyes around me and all was good, There never was a problem you couldn't happily solve and you always remembered those little details in my and other artists lives that made us feel like a part of your extended family. You were so supportive of me and my artwork and as scattered as I could be, you always had my back. You touched me with your friendship and your grace and I was so heartbroken with the struggle of your illness. Coming to Easton became bitter sweet. But know that warmth and kindness of your sweet soul will remain with me and so many others forever. Thank you.
