

Teresa Lynne Godley Smith

October 8, 1959 - March 17, 2015

Teresa Lynn Godley Smith, born October 8, 1959, died March 17, 2015, at the age of 55.

Terry graduated from Kent County High School with a special interest in creative writing, in which her family was the recipient of many beautiful poems and letters penned in her hand.

Terry loved to garden. She had a collection of house plants in her home, which she lovingly cared for. Whenever she could, she loved to do for others and had a heart of gold. She collected sterling silver and turquoise jewelry, which she loved and wore proudly and dream catchers and Indian feathers adorned her neck. Her laugh was contagious and her beautiful smile could light up a castle. She never knew her own beauty. She was quirky and, yes, a little goofy, but she was ours. She was actively volunteering at the local library in Salisbury, MD, where she spent her time again, giving and helping others.

God and his house of worship were very important in her life, as she enjoyed attending different denominational churches. She loved her family very much and had a special bond with her nieces and nephews who loved her dearly.

Terry is survived by her parents, Earl and Margaret Godley of Chestertown; her son, Eric Smith and his wife Kelley of Oswego, IL; one daughter Dani

Osterman of Fort Myers, FL; two brothers, Cliff Godley and his fiancé Marylee of Worton, Mike Godley and his wife Crystal of Rock Hall; two sisters, Lisa Marshall and her husband Pete of Kingstown, and Missy Bishton and her husband John of Fort Myers, FL; and two grandchildren, Madyson and Kaelyn Smith of Oswego, IL. She is also survived by nieces and nephews, Brittany Wiltbank, Felicia Bauza, Hilary VanWinkle, Matthew Wilbank, Hailei Willin, Shawn Godley, Chandler Dyott, Hayden Albright, Mason Albright, Gabriel Bauza, Austin VanWinkle, and Rylee VanWinkle.

A viewing will be held a Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, 130 Speer Road, Chester, MD, on Saturday, March 21, 2015, from 4 p.m. – 6 p.m. where a service will be held at 6 p.m. A private graveside service will be held on Sunday.
