“ Ms. Terry took me in during a difficult time in my life and treated me like family. I'll never forget the evening she went with me to talk to the Marine recruiter, because of her support I was able to break free and start a life of my own. I'm so sorry that I lost contact with her over the years.

*With deepest sympathy,
Christine*

“ I will miss our silly talks we had and how crazy things got when the whole family got together. Our family has always been a loud one, but now it will be a little more quiet without you, I am so sad now that the 5 of us are now 4. I will always luv you and miss u terribly. When you see dad please tell him I luv him. RIP sissy, until we meet again!??????

“ I worked with Terry for almost 2 years. I will always remember her asking me how my son was doing. She would often talk about her Grandchildren and her precious Granddaughter who called her Mom Mom. Rest In Peace Terry.
