“ I am Terry's cousin; his mother and my father were brother and sister. My wife and I wish to send our deepest sympathy to Barbara and Tim and the rest of the family members on the loss of such a fine husband, father, grandfather and brother. I have fond memories of visits to the Anderson farm and to the warm family relationship that those visits help develop. we are sorry for your loss and pray that memories will support you in your hour of sadness.##imported-begin##Tom and Flora Towers##imported-end##
