

Thakor H. Desai

December 20, 1943 - September 6, 2012

Thakorbhai Hirabhai Desai, 68, passed away in the early hours of Thursday, September 6, 2012, at the University of Maryland Medical Center in Baltimore.

He was born on December 20, 1943, in Chanvai, India, where he spent his childhood on the family farm. Thakorbhai married Manjuben on September 17, 1966, and they moved to London, England, soon thereafter, where they had four children. They migrated to the United States on December 16, 1979, and settled in Springfield, IL. Thakorbhai was a successful hotel entrepreneur who then moved to Saluda, NC, on July 12, 1982. He and his family later relocated to Easton, MD, in the fall of 1996, where he owned and operated several businesses, including the Econo Lodge in Easton.

Organ donation gave Thakorbhai the gift of life in April, 2008. The passing of a generous soul blessed the Desai family with an additional four-and-a-half wonderful years with Thakorbhai. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle, brother, and friend.

Thakorbhai was preceded in death by his parents, Hirabhai N. Desai and Kesarben H. Desai, and his siblings, Parsottam H. Desai, Laxmiben N. Patel and Rameshbhai H. Desai. He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Manjuben; children, Dipa, Bina, Jayesh and Damini; grandchildren, Raina, Tulsi, Niyam, Riyanna, Rishi, Jaida and Dilan; and brother, Ishver H. Desai.

The funeral service were held on Saturday, September 8, 2012, at St. Mark's United Methodist Church.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Hindu Temple in Salisbury, MD, located at 125 Parker Road, Salisbury, MD, 21804.
