

Theodore Robert Cavey Sr.

February 18, 1942 - June 15, 2020

Theodore R. Cavey Sr., born on February 18, 1942, peacefully passed away on June 15, 2020. He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather and brother, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and cherished memories.

Theodore's life journey was marked by a deep love for his family and a passion for the great outdoors. From an early age, he discovered his affinity for fishing and hunting.

Each spring, Theodore eagerly awaited the opportunity to plant his vegetable garden, carefully selecting the seeds and nurturing the plants with care. Every Christmas he made his delicious, glazed ham which everyone looked forward to.

A dedicated husband, Theodore was a true partner to his high school sweetheart, Beverly A. Cavey (Taylor). Together, they built a life full of love, trust, and shared experiences. Their bond grew stronger over the years, serving as an inspiration to all who witnessed their enduring love.

Theodore's love for his family knew no bounds. As a father, he poured his heart and soul into nurturing and guiding his children: Deborah, Theodore Jr., Brian, and Michael along with their spouses. His love was unwavering, his support steadfast.

As a grandfather, Theodore cherished the opportunity to share his wisdom and experiences with his ten grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren. He delighted in their laughter, celebrated their achievements.
