

Theodore William Landskroener

October 31, 1923 - May 2, 2020

Theodore William Landskroener, a former Navy pilot who owned and operated a successful window and door business in Queen Anne's County for more than 40 years, died May 2, 2020. He was 96.

Born in Bethlehem, PA, on October 31, 1923, Ted was the middle son of Clarence and Myrna Smith Landskroener, originally of Saginaw, MI. The family moved to Merchantville, NJ, when the boys were young, and Clarence first opened the Delmarva Sash & Door Company (DSD) in Barclay in 1942. Ted joined the company at the end of his military service in 1945. He and Kathleen Bottomley of Merchantville, NJ, were married in 1947 and moved to Chestertown, where they raised five children. Although he had no formal business training, Ted built the company into a multi-million-dollar wholesale distribution center servicing builders throughout the Atlantic Seaboard region.

DSD suffered a devastating loss in 1978, when the largest fire in the history of Queen Anne's County destroyed the manufacturing plant and warehouse. Several volunteer fire companies from surrounding Maryland and Delaware towns responded to the blaze, and before the smoke cleared DSD competitors had stepped forward to help the company remain in operation while the plant was rebuilt. Out of gratitude for the selfless sacrifices made by civic organizations and business associates alike, Ted took a leadership role in the Maryland State Fire Association and agreed to preside over the National Sash & Door Jobbers Association. Ted sold the company to Reeb Millwork in 2004 and lived out his retirement in Chestertown, where he enjoyed spending time with his large circle of friends and a growing family.

Ted rarely left the house without his Navy ball cap, and he loved to share the story of how he came to earn his Navy wings. After the bombing of Pearl Harbor, Ted began to contemplate which branch of the service he should join. One day, he spotted a sharp-dressed Naval aviator on the cover of the Saturday Evening Post and decided right then and there that he would do whatever it takes to earn that uniform. Months later, during flight training school, Ted came face to face with that very officer, who had been shot down in the South Pacific and lived to tell about it.

Ted was undergoing carrier landing training, bound for the Pacific Theater, when President Truman dropped a second bomb to end the war. That bomb, he said, surely saved his life and the lives of countless other American military men.

Ted was a giant in the community—a faithful member of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Past Master in the Chester Lodge, a member of Ellen's Breakfast Club, and a Friday night regular at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club, where he always ordered what was dubbed "the Landskroener pour." He played golf well into his 80s and played bridge until just months before his death.

Predeceased by his two brothers and his wife, Kathy, Ted is survived by his daughter, Nancy; sons and daughters-in-law Chris and Marcia, Jim and Diane, David and Sue, and John; nine grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial donations be made to the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company.

A celebration of life will be held on Sunday, August 16, 2020, at 2:00 pm at Chester River Yacht and County Club at the "Cart Shed" adjacent to the club.

“ Ted and Kathy have been absolute fixtures in my life, and are much missed, but also well remembered by so many people with whom they shared good times. My parents spent many great occasions with them, as Nancy and I have done throughout our lives. The Landskroener family is incredibly special. Love, Lynn McLain

“ To say that Mr. Ted was a Pillar of the community, is an understatement. He, his wife and the entire Family are pillars that stand for what Kent County and beyond stands for. God Bless Mr. Ted's family. You have a lot to be VERY proud of. Arthur Godfrey, Burlington NC. (an ole Bonnett's Town & Country Clerk in my youth, where the Landskroener's were regulars)

“Ted. What can I say at such a sad day in my business and social life. Ted, and his wife Kathy, were of the kind of person that you just can't get enough of. Kind harted, fair, honest, and so enjoyabel. He made our association meetings a "cannot miss" event. His use of humor, not even planned in advance, was a pleasure to behold. His company, along with any and all of his employees, was such a pleasure in which to be in competition. The stories he told about his military experiences made you want to be there. A dedicated family man and a true partner with his employees and friends. Many times I find myself longing for the "good old days" of which Ted was a very good part. Kath and I will miss him to say the least. May God bless him and his family. And may his reunion with Kathy be a joyous as Ted has been in life.

“ There are MANY memories I'd love to share. Our families grew up at Chester River Yacht & Country Club. My greatest memories of Mr Landskroener is golfing as a youngster. My last memories of Mr Landskroener were walking from a gig at the Dock Bar the past two summers, and playing one song for him at the Clubhouse where he enjoyed Friday evening dinners. As well as him sitting at the table directly beside me setup to hear me play.
Thanks for Great memories.
Rest In Peace my friend.
