call.

Theresa was a wonderful wife, an amazing mother, grandmother and great grandmother to each and every one of her family members. She doted on all of them and was so proud and loved each unconditionally. She was completely selfless, incredibly giving, loving, accepting of everyone. She enjoyed being with her huge extended family. She was also a wonderful baker and cook. She loved to walk on the boardwalk with her husband John, play cards and the Mexican train game with the ladies. She was excellent at tole painting. In her younger days, she loved to go to dances with her hubby and dance the night away at the Knights of Columbus and St. Bernard's. She also did volunteer work at the Children's Beach House and St. Vincent De Paul in Lewes, DE. There is not a day that will go by that everyone who knew her will not feel the void she has left.
