

Theresa Mae Morgan Middleton

September 1, 1999

Theresa Mae Morgan Middleton of Salisbury, MD, died on September 1, 1999, after a lengthy illness. She was 84.

Born in Baltimore, MD, on April 6, 1915, she was the daughter of the late James and Olive Belle Hudson Morgan. She was raised by her grandparents Effie M. & Albert W. Hudson from the age of two, at their home in Piney Neck near Rock Hall, MD, and used the name of Hudson throughout her school years.

After graduating from Rock Hall High School, she moved to Baltimore in 1933 to study hairdressing. In 1935, she married James Thomas Middleton and worked as a homemaker, raising her family. Mrs. Middleton became a member of the Gatch Memorial Methodist Church, and was past Matron of Bethel Chapter #71 O.E.S.

After retiring to Rock Hall, she joined the Rock Hall United Methodist Church. Because of illness, she and her husband, Tom, lived with their son, Jack, and his wife, Melva, in Salisbury.

A loved and loving wife and mother, Mrs. Middleton is survived by her husband, James Thomas Middleton of Salisbury, MD; two sons, James Albert & wife Mickie of Virginia and John Thomas, Sr., and wife Melva of Salisbury, MD; eight grandchildren and great-grandchildren; along with many loving and loved friends. Services were private.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggest memorial contributions be made to Rock Hall Volunteer Fire Department and Ambulance Fund, PO Box 577, Rock Hall, Maryland 21661.
