“ Terry lived next door to my aunt and uncle for many years. She was so kind and helpful to them for years. So sorry for your loss. My love and sympathy during this difficult time. God bless the family. Teresa Lewis

“ Terry was my mom's next door neighbor and she loved Terry so much. Terry was so caring and kind while my mom was sick. They are neighbors once more in their heavenly home now. My deepest sympathy to the family and the special caregivers that Terry had.

“ Terry has been a member of our Sunday Ladies' Growth Group since it started years ago. She was "Terry my secretary," always making sure I got a copy of our Church bulletin, reminding me of upcoming events.

She sent out cards and reached out to members who missed a class. Her love for our church was great and the church became a special family for her. Her passion for the Christmas Child ministry boxes was exemplary. She will be missed, but we know one step beyond this life on earth will be heaven for her. No more pain or heartaches. Rest in peace Terry.
