

Thomas Joseph Carbine

June 18, 1937 - February 21, 2023

Thomas Joseph Carbine, 85, of Hurlock, MD, passed away on February 21, 2023.

Thomas was born in Ridley Park, PA, on June 18, 1937, the son of Francis Carbine and Hazel Carbine (Burke).

In 1955, Tom enlisted in the U.S. Navy where he served a four year term as a "tin cup" sailor on the USS Vogelgesang. His position was that of a radioman. He earned the medal of good conduct, recognized by the United States Navy. Later in life, Tom worked as a pipefitter for General Motors Corporation. He went on to serve at General Motors as a counselor for their Employee Assistance Program.

Tom led a very caring life and enjoyed spending time with wife and soulmate, Theresa, either traveling or just sitting on their porch watching the birds and squirrels at their home. Theresa and Tom mutually nurtured each other in a loving relationship. Tom enjoyed his relationships with friends and family telling and sharing his stories about his service in the Navy and his life.

He is survived by his wife, Theresa Carbine; brother, Monsignor Francis Carbine; three children, Thomas J. Carbine, Jr., Donna Grzyb (Mark), Sandra Gillis (Palmer); five grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. He was also cherished by Theresa's children, Sharon Britton (George) and Donna Ponik (Bob), and their children Stephanie & Jennifer.

There will be a funeral service with military honors held in the chapel at the Maryland Eastern Shore Veterans Cemetery, 6827 E. New Market Ellwood Road in Hurlock on Tuesday, February 28, 2023, beginning at 10 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to either the VFW or Wounded Warrior Project.
