“ Tom & I did not share enough time to develop a friendship. However, we were friendly acquaintances; sharing a 'Love of the Sea': from Massapequa thru USN to Maryland Shore. "Fair Skies & Following Seas" to him. ~ Jack Maggi

“ Tom and I were also classmates at Massapequa High School in 1967. Tom was a great friend, and a wonderful person. A true American, a man who loved his county and especially loved his family. I will miss him. RIP.....R.O'Malley

“ Tom and I were Massapequa High School classmates, grads 1967.....I remember he was always fascinated by naval history, even as a teen; therefore I am not surprised to learn he served in the Navy....if I stood at my front door, I could look diagonally to the Garvey home. Tom was quiet, intelligent, and kind....I am glad he was living a full life in such a beautiful (and near the ocean!) part of our country during his final years.

I extend condolences to Doug (we knew each other quite well), Jeff and Gwen...and of course Tom's wife whom I never met.....we all drifted to different paths and locations after high school, but those childhood neighbors and friends are always a part of the roots which made us who we are. God Bless Tom- and condolences to those loved ones he leaves behind.
