

Thomas Hamilton Reynolds

July 18, 1946 - December 5, 2023

Thomas H. Reynolds, 77, of Queenstown, Md passed away on December 5, 2023 surrounded by family.

Tom was born and raised on Maryland's Eastern shore, the son of the late Henry Clay and Rita (Aquino) Reynolds, Jr. After graduating from Centreville HS, Tom enlisted in the National Guard obtaining the rank of Sergeant. Tom later met and married his wife Donna building a beautiful life of 54 years together. He was a lifelong carpenter eventually owning and operating a successful construction business in Talbot County. He enjoyed being on the water crabbing, oystering and fishing.

In retirement, Tom had many hobbies and interests. If he wasn't on the water fishing, he was in his workshop turning chunks of found wood and various other materials into beautiful pieces of art, travelling to craft shows accompanied by his "road dogs"; his grandsons or good friends, selling his pieces and meeting other artisans. Tom frequented the local library and was an avid reader enjoying westerns, mystery and suspense novels devouring a book a day. Tom will be remembered most for his love of his family, his quick wit, sense of humor and appreciation of a good prank. His wide smile, goofy grin and chuckle laugh will be greatly missed.

Tom is survived by his cherished wife Donna; daughters, Kathryn Adams

(Larry), Karen Romano (Chris) and Kelly Stacey (Ricky); siblings; Faith Hodan, Artie Reynolds and Paul Reynolds and his beloved grandchildren; Seth, Luke, Dominic, Dylan and Mac. In addition to his parents, Tom is predeceased by his brothers; Richard "Dick" Reynolds and Henry "Hal" Reynolds.

On Friday, December 15, 2023 visitation will be held from 10-11am followed by memorial service at 11am at Fellows, Helfenbein, & Newnam Funeral Home, Chester, MD.

Please consider a memorial contribution in memory of Tom to Compass Regional Hospice.
