“ My first memory of Father Schulze was at my first St. Michael's Conference where I had taken more than I was able to eat and had leftovers on my plate. He was very adamant that we should take a little and come back for more versus waste food. As a function of my failure to manage my portion control, I was "invited" to eat with the very stoic Father Director at the next meal. His firm command and kindly nature made me take an immediate liking to him and his authenticity made me committed to trusting him completely to serve as a confidante, advisor and shepard. I will miss him more than words can express. My heart and prayers are with Kay and Tom's family as we celebrate his life and meaning to so many.
