

Thomas Eugene Taylor

October 2, 1936 - December 28, 2014

Thomas Eugene “Tom” Taylor, age 78, of Chestertown, MD, passed away peacefully on Sunday, December 28, 2014, at Compass Hospice in Centreville, MD.

Born on October 2, 1936, in Frederick, MD, he was the son of the late Marion Eugene and Hazel May (Hatfield) Taylor.

Moving to Rock Hall, MD, at an early age, Tom was a graduate of Rock Hall High School, Class of 1954.

He proudly served his country in both the Maryland National Guard and U.S. Navy during the Korean and Vietnam Wars. Following 29 years of dedicated military service, Tom retired from the Navy as an aerographer with the rank of Master Chief Petty Officer in January, 1982. Prior to enlisting with the U.S. Navy, he worked for Don Falls in Chestertown, where his passion for electronics first began.

Throughout his retirement, Tom enjoyed a quiet life, walking everywhere while capturing inspiring photos with his camera. Prior to his illness, most mornings were spent at Scottie’s Shoe Store and Play It Again Sam’s where he enjoyed meeting friends for coffee. Tom will always be remembered as a caring friend.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, William Ronald Taylor.

He is survived by a son, Gregory T. Taylor; a granddaughter, Ashley Ryan; as well as by many dear and close friends.

Interment services will be held privately at St. Paul's Cemetery.

Tom's friends would like to offer a special thank you to the staff at Compass Regional Hospice for their wonderful care, compassion, and kindness extended to Tom during his stay.

Memorial contributions may be made in Tom's memory to Compass Regional Hospice, 255 Comet Drive, Centreville, MD 21617 or to Damon Runyon Cancer Research Foundation, One Exchange Plaza, 55 Broadway, Suite 302, New York, NY 10006.
