“ My husband, Paul Barbian, and I were heartbroken to learn of Tom's death.

We shared wonderful Foreign Service times with him in Washington and later by keeping in touch as life took all of us around the country and world.

When our phone calls were not answered over the past few months we assumed he and Judy were on another adventure. Tom, you have left so many bereft---of your wonderful humor, great intelligence, spirit of adventure, sophistication, kindness, integrity. To Judy and other members of his family, we wish we could take some of the heartache away.

Warmest regards,

“ I am deeply saddened by Tom Timberman's death. I knew Tom in Berlin, when he was a year ahead of me in school but became my friend when I joined the Boy Scout Troop after my 11th birthday. Upon my father's reassignment in 1953, I lost touch with Tom, but, thanks to the internet, we reconnected in 2023 and he treated my wife and me to a reunion lunch when we met up in Chestertown last summer. Sadly, the additional visits I had hoped for this year and in years to come are not to happen, but I shall treasure my memories of Tom at ages 12 and 83 as one of the finest, kindest, most generous people I've ever known.

“ Tom and Judy were my neighbors in Rock Hall. I always enjoyed my conversations with both and found Tom to be a voice of experience and wisdom when it came to what was happening in the world at large.

My sympathies to Judy.

“ Tom's wife is my sister in law. She was a young widow for a few years when she met Tom. It was a perfect match where each was lucky to find the other. We were in touch by email (we are in NJ). I was shocked when i learned of his passing. Condolences to Judy and to those close to Tom.

“ Judy and Family;

My very sincere condolences on the passing of Tom.

I met Tom at MACV in Vietnam.

I was a young Infantry officer at the time and had to travel to MACV to submit reports and do the Army things that were required by my superiors.

Tom and his associates at MACV 'adopted' me and we became life long friends even though we infrequently saw each other.

I will always remember his dry wit, his kindness, and presence. He was a gentleman and a consummate professional. I will miss him very much.

Thank you

Hi Cindy, I am Liz, Tom's niece who lives in England. This was such a sad shocking surprise. I always saw Tom on my trips home. Although, sadly he couldn't make the last visit as he was tied up. I grew up hearing about all his travel adventures, his exciting career as a senior Diplomat, and his intelligent take on life and politics. He was an absolute inspiration to me.

To my very close friend and confidant in solving the problems of the world. From Iraq to Afghanistan to initiatives in DC, all who know you recognize the critical importance of what you accomplished. Your 'leave behinds' impacted so many lives for the better.

You are missed,

At my age, I find myself increasingly mourning the loss of many people who have been important to me over the years. Tom was such a friend. We served together on the MBFR delegation in Vienna in 1973 and, when we tired of TDYs in hotels, we rented the mother-in-law apartment in the Kinsky Palais. We have not talked enough in recent years, but Tom was always a source of good advice and support for me, starting in Vienna and continuing over the decades. What a decent, kind, intelligent and faithful friend he was....

Tom was a friend and colleague. We met on a year at Harvard in the 1980s and stayed in touch since, especially since we both served in Afghanistan around 2010. Tom will be missed by me and by many. Thanks to him for his service to our nation and to so many in the world!

My husband, Jim, and Tom had a wonderful friendship over the years and enjoyed many laughs together. I can only imagine them now enjoying each other once again. Tom was a very special man.

Tom and I sat next to each other at the Georgetown Foreign Service School. We lost touch after we graduated. But we had some fun times, including an evening on the presidential yacht for the Fourth of July. I thought I wanted to go abroad, as Tom actually did, but only got as far as the US Senate where I worked for 4 years. What an amazing life he led!

I have been calling Tom for a couple of months. Now I know.....Awful....We'd been friends since our JOT days in 1966. He's sooo missed.

Tom and I met in 1961 at the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service. Tom was a generous, friendly and entrepreneurial man who organized several of us into a social group. Under Tom's leadership, we enjoyed fun times and friendships. I saw him later in Vietnam when he was in the Foreign Service and I was an Air Force officer. In my own later career in the Foreign Service, I saw Tom occasionally, but we lost touch over the years. I still remember him as a warm-hearted person who brought people together.
