“ Just finding out about Tom's Passing. I worked under Tom in 1985-86, as a carpenter/ builder. I was a young man just starting out in the business. He taught me so much as a builder. I spoke with him on the phone, on and off for years. He was a kind, gentle man. He's always been in my fondest memories. Rest easy brother.

“ I just learned of Toms passing 2 years ago. He was a great friend and a great "big brother" to so many of us...the world lost a great man

“ I was an acquaintance of Tom for a few years about 12 years ago. I was a young doctor in Easton and he showed me what it really meant to listen to a patient. His ideas and insights were as big mountains though at times felt fragile as paper. He was like a character from a Steinbeck novel but as real and concrete as gravity. Yet no one temporarily down on luck or hard up or dealing with their demons ever found a more faithful advocate. He was a champion of any one in suffering. I hope he is out there somewhere still, in some far off place, still in his kerosine heated workshop making art and saving souls.

“ Thoughts and condolence to the family of Tom...he will be missed...i/my family met Tom years ago back in St.Michaels(he lived behind us in his house)...fast forward some years..and now in Easton,I saw him needing some assistance..so I came to be his personal care rep..while he was in his home..I found Tom to be extremely knowledgeable about many topics..if I didn't know something..tom knew or would give me his opinion...a great artist..many of his paintings I hung on his wall because I wanted him to be reminded of the work he did before he couldn't do as much..but they were reminders of what he could do again once he got well...I would tell tom..u aren't my client..u are family...we weathered many storms...the last time I spoke w tom was when he was in the hospital and I told him I'd come to see him when I felt better..and he wanted me to bring him some drawing pencils..I never got chance to....as I listen to my voicemails from him..I know he truly appreciated what I could do to help with his care...again..he will be truly missed and I know to cherish the memories...with love and sympathy to the Vennerbeck family..from Maria
