“ Thomas: It has been an honor and a privilege to have called you friend and for you to call me friend. I have valued your thoughts and beliefs and they will greatly be missed. You were always there to lend a ear no matter what time of day. It pains me to believe that those days are gone. I know you are out of pain and are now spending your time above fishing and taking care of all the wayward dogs that need you. Marguerite: Thank you for taking care of my friend until the end you did it so well. I love you for that! I loved Tom like a best friend, brother in blue and like another father to me. Rest Well My Friend.##imported-begin##John Atkins##imported-end##
