

Thomas F. Mackin

April 14, 2006

Thomas (Tom) Frederick Mackin, Jr. 81, of Grasonville, MD passed away on April 14, 2006 at the Hospice House in Linthicum, MD. Born on February 8, 1925 in Brooklyn, NY. He grew up in Valley Stream and was a 1943 graduate of Woodmere High School, 1949 graduate of Adelphi University in Hempstead, Long Island. He served in World War II in Naval Aviation.

Tom a well respected professional within the reinsurance and excess lines insurance industry, was employed with Lloyds of London as a correspondent in New York City until he remarried and relocated to Maryland where he was employed as the Underwriting for the Maryland Auto Insurance Fund.

He is survived by his beloved wife Elizabeth (Betsy) Coughlin Mackin his children Thomas "Brooks" and Kim Elizabeth; daughter in law Shari; grandchildren Austin, Brooks and Tyler Thornton; and sister Ruth.

A service will be held at the Chapel at the Maryland Veterans Cemetery Crownsville in Crownsville, MD. On Wednesday April 19, 2006 at 10AM. Following the burial a celebration of Tom's life will be held at the Oyster Cove Clubhouse located at Route 18 Grasonville, MD. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Hospice of the Chesapeake, 445 Defense Highway Annapolis, MD 21401 or the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, 6

Herndon Ave., Annapolis, MD 21403.

Tribute Wall

“ Thomas F. Mackin

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Thomas F. Mackin

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Thomas F. Mackin

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM