

Thomas James Faulkner Jr.

May 1, 2000

Thomas James Faulkner, Jr. of Easton died on Monday, May 1, 2000 at the Memorial Hospital, Easton. He was 81.

Born in Fairbank on October 5, 1918, he was the son of the late Thomas James, Sr. and Blanche Weber Faulkner. After graduating from Easton High School, he attended a business college in Baltimore for two years. He then served in the U.S. Navy from 1942-45. In 1945, he married the former Dolores Marie Guidone and they moved to Easton in 1947. For a number of years, he, his father, and his brother, Weber Faulkner, who also died in January of this year, owned and operated a cannery called the Salem Packing Company in Salem. He also worked as a correctional officer in the Maryland House of Corrections in Jessup for sixteen years until his retirement in 1990.

Mr. Faulkner was a member of the American Legion Post #70 in Easton, the E.E. Streets Memorial Post # 5118 of the V.F.W. in Easton, the Talbot County Rod & Gun Club in Easton, the National Wildlife Federation, and the N.R.A.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, Thomas J. Faulkner, III of Cambridge and James Lowery Faulkner of Monmouth Beach, NJ; a daughter, Mary Jean Aydelotte of Easton; and five granddaughters.

Funeral services will be held at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Easton on Thursday, May 4, 2000 at 11:00 AM. Friends may call at the Fellows, Helfenbein, & Newnam Funeral Home, Easton on Wednesday evening from 7-9 PM. Burial will be in Spring Hill Cemetery, Easton.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, c/o Sheila Bateman, 501 Dutchman's Lane, Easton, MD 21601.

Tribute Wall

“ Thomas James Faulkner Jr.

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Thomas James Faulkner Jr.

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Thomas James Faulkner Jr.

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM