“ Ever so sorry for your loss. I Know this is a very trying time. Please know that my wife and I send our deepest feelings of sorrow. I knew you, but I didn't know Tommy like my brother did, for I was so much older during the growing up years, but I do feel for your loss. Sandy

“ From a big brown eyed sweet baby to a wonderful loving, funny man, I' watched you grow never knowing that I would see the day the Lord takes you home. You will always be loved and missed by your friends and family, your wit, humor and kindness will still surprise us in memories that we will cherish and hold dear. May God bless us all and strengthen us in the loss of you... Thomas Elston Lynch, Jr.....my wonderful sweet nephew I will miss your phone calls. Love Aunt Linda (Lynch) Frahm
