I met Tiffany through the Cancer Center. She was such a beautiful ray of sunshine. I feel blessed to have known her in such the short time I knew her. May she rest in peace in the loving arms of God.

“ My favorite memory is seeing Tiffany, at church, praising God with her mother. I will miss seeing her every Sunday. She was so sweet and comforting to me, when she found out I had cancer to. Told me they were praying for me. So glad I got to meet her, I know her family must be heartbroken. Praying for all of them right now, trusting she is in the sweet, comforting arms of Jesus right now, without pain or diesese. God please Bless her and them as they press on. We love you sweet and Gdly woman of God. Love Diana and Rick Hancock.

“ Tiffany always volunteered in the Survivor Tent at the NOCC Walk to Break the Silence on Ovarian Cancer. I will remember her fondly when she came to a chapter meeting at my house in Annapolis all the way from Easton with a delicious fruit salad. She talked about her nieces and was excited that they would help her this year in the Survivor tent. I said hello to her but I wish I had given her a hug that day. What a loss. All of her family are in my thoughts and prayers. Too many beautiful women are dying of ovarian cancer. We will work so hard to one day find a cure.
She is now in a warm peace with the Lord.

“ I've known Tiffany since she was born. From the time she was a baby she always liked to be around people and listen to their conversations. As she grew, she would all of a sudden add a fact or piece of information that we had missed or forgotten. She remembered the details.
Tiffany loved her family. She liked to be near her family at home and at church. Tiffany liked to help prepare meals and entertain her nieces and nephew.
Tiffany loved the Lord. She enjoyed meeting people at church and enjoyed reading and listening to stories in the Bible.
Tiffany kept in touch with relatives and always enjoyed family get togethers.
She will be missed.
