

Timothy Gordon Bemis

November 5, 1946 - August 31, 2008

Timothy Gordon Bemis died at home in Neavitt, MD on August 31, 2008. He was the son of Dorothy Wagner Bemis and the late, Norman Stearns Bemis. He was born November 1946 in Bryn Mawr, PA. Tim is survived by his wife, Jill Atkins Bemis; sister, Elizabeth B. Clarke; brothers, Norman S. Bemis and Richard A. Bemis; and nieces and nephews.

He earned a BA degree from Grove City College and a MBA from Temple University. Tim had a long career in sales with Conrail. As a high school and college student, Tim had become an engineer on the Mount Washington Cog Railway in New Hampshire. He retired to Talbot County in 2002, and locally worked part-time for Albright's Gunshop.

Tim had a real enjoyment of life and many hobbies including Scuba diving, sailing, boating, hunting, fishing, and an eclectic variety of music.

At Tim's request a private service will be held at West Laurel Hill Cemetery in Bala Cynwyd, PA.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to the Eastern Shore Land Conservancy, Land Stewardship Endowment, PO Box 169, Queenstown, MD 21658.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, MD.

“ We are saddened by Tim's death and will miss his great smile and pleasant demineor at Albright's Gun Shop.

He will be missed at the Talbot Gun Club; we enjoyed shooting with him and discussing shotguns.

Lorraine Spence, his neighbor, also wishes to convey her condolences.

With Heartfelt Sympathy, and may tender memories soften your sadness.
