“ Rob, we were very sadden at the news of Tina's passing. I remember many phone conversations with her early on. Tina was beautiful inside and out, and she always had an encouraging word. Throughout her struggles she remained outwardly brave and smiling. Please accept our deepest condolences. Mary and Les Schoene

“ As a pastor i come across many people who profess to know the Lord but do not act accordingly. However in the case of Tina, I truly know and feel in my heart that Tina had a big heart for helping others and sharing the love of Christ with those in need and that doesn't happen by chance!

I say that because even though she was dealing with a serious life crisis, she always had a big beautiful smile for everyone at the Grasonville Community service center.

To me, she will always be remembered as a woman of conviction and love that went above and beyond for everyone she came in contact with. She will always be remembered as a friend and family of our church.
