“ My heart goes out to Dominic&Kelly.I cannot quite find the words to express my deepest symphy I feel for you both. You were wonderful parents..I could tell from the couple times I've seen you with your son. He was loved by many , including myself...and will always be in our hearts. I pray that God gives you strength and hope, faith&love. And know that he is in a better place, free from suffering and pain this crazy world brings. He was too beautiful for earth, and God called him home.

May you be at peace with the Angels, playing with the other angels and sitting on Jesus' lap, smiling and happy. You were such a beautiful and handsome baby. You seemed so happy in the one time I actually got to meet you. I am so glad I did. You and my son hugged, I will never forget that precious moment.

Rest In Peace beautiful boy.###imported-begin##Alison###imported-end##

“ Kelly and Dominic,

Our hearts go out to you and your family on the loss of your baby boy. I guess God needed another Angel and now he is in heaven watching down on you. I can't imagine the pain you are feeling now but just try to cherish the wonderful memories of the short time that you had him and believe that God had other plans for him. That we can't question. Know that you are in our prayers and may God bless each of you.
