“ My love and thoughts are with the family. I have known Valerie ever since we were kids. One of my favorite memories of her is sitting in the EMS gym on the bleachers, waiting for the first bell to ring, stomping our feet and singing Charlie Brown. She always made it easier to deal with being a misfit throughout school. Regretfully, We grew up and apart after I was sent to Maple Shade. We ran into each other occasionally and it always lit up my face as it would always seem like we had never been apart as we would catch up on the time lost. I will always love You Valerie, my little sister, my Little Wolf...Forever. Rest in Peace.
