

Valorie Kay Kilbourn

January 23, 1949 - August 19, 2026

Valorie Kilbourn crossed the threshold to eternal life on August 19. She was seventy-seven. After growing up in central Illinois, she met her husband and happily made many different houses a home for him and their two boys as the Navy moved him around, including Charleston South Carolina, Ballston Spa New York, Falls Church Virginia, Pearl Harbor Hawaii, Portsmouth New Hampshire, Brussels, Belgium and King George Virginia until settling down in Neavitt following his retirement. She was perpetually in love with her husband and made their life together a daily joy. To him, she was Petunia. To her two sons, she was a loving mother. To God, she was a faithful servant. To those who came to know her, she was strength. She is survived by two brothers, Dan and Greg Bevard, her sons Rick and Shawn, three grandchildren, and a newly arrived great-grandson
