

Verona Palatinus

January 1, 1933 - November 14, 2025

Verona Palatinus, of Chestertown, Maryland, passed away peacefully on Friday, November 14, 2025, at the age of 92.

Verona was born on January 1, 1933, in Toba, Serbia, to the late Paul and Rosalia Korom. After her school years, she built a life rooted in hard work and care for others. She immigrated to the United States with her family on August 24, 1968 from Europe and spent time working as a piece worker with Mohawk Devices and later as a housekeeper at Delaware Valley University in Doylestown, Pennsylvania.

On January 24, 1954, Verona married Sandor Palatinus, with whom she shared 39 devoted years until his passing in 1993. Their life together was filled with love, family, and the traditions they carried from their heritage.

Verona was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, her brothers Frank, Steven, Paul, and Alex Korom, and her grandson James Palatinus.

She leaves behind a family who adored her: her daughter Rosemary Charles of Doylestown, PA, and her son Nandor "Fred" Palatinus (Susan), also of Doylestown. She was a beloved grandmother to Joe Goetz (Liza) of Chestertown, MD, and Andrew Palatinus of Doylestown, PA; a proud great-grandmother to Elizabeth Frey (Joshua) and William Goetz, both of Chestertown; and a joyful great-great-grandmother to Carley and Joshua.

Verona is also survived by her sisters Elizabeth Vajda and Theresa Bali, both of South Plainfield, NJ, along with many nieces and nephews who cherished her.

A graveside service will be held on Tuesday, December 2, 2025, at 10:00 AM at Doylestown Cemetery, 215 E. Court Street, Doylestown, Pennsylvania. In lieu of flowers, donations in Verona's memory may be made to the Amy Lynn Ferris Adult Activities Center, 200 Schaubert Road, Chestertown, MD 21620, or to the Meals on Wheels program.

“ I first met Veronica as neighbor at Kent Crossing Apartments. The love she had for her grandson was always about the love for his favorite dish cabbage rolls. He spoiled her and she spoiled him. Also Ms Veronica could knit and after visiting her new apartment showed me all the yarn and the sweaters that were better than store bought. I also recall her walking around the parking lot with her chair/walker. I moved in January 2025 and we were to drink hot tea together. However that day didn't come. Also the love for her country. Miss you and it was a wonderful pleasure knowing you.
