“ Aunt Veronica was a “together” aunt. She was very friendly and hospitable to everyone. I started dating my now husband Bill and she was so welcoming to him/us, that Thanksgiving day. It kinda smoothed things over with Bill and our huge family She told us to help ourselves and pretty sure she pointed out the beer cooler to Bill and that sealed the deal for Bill.

Aunt Veronica was telling everyone if you drink too much, you can stay alllll night. I'm sure anyone who was there that day remembers all the food and fun.

She seemed to always give the young adults attention.

“ Paul and John sorry for your loss.
In Loving Memory of Aunt Veronica
A Tribute to a Beloved Aunt

Aunt Veronica was truly one of my favorite aunts. She had a warm and welcoming presence that made everyone feel at home the moment they walked through her door. Her kindness and hospitality left a lasting impression on all who had the pleasure of knowing her. Some of my fondest memories are from the wonderful Thanksgiving celebrations spent with the Renshaw and Windmiller families at her house. These gatherings were filled with laughter, love, and a sense of togetherness that Aunt Veronica so effortlessly created. Her generosity, caring spirit, and ability to bring people together are qualities that will always be cherished and remembered. May Aunt Veronica rest in eternal peace, knowing that she touched so many hearts and created memories that will last a lifetime.

“ John, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your mom. She was a very nice lady and a good neighbor. I lived next to her for about 11 years. My very first interaction with her was the night I moved in and she brought me over cookies. I've never forgotten that. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May she rest in peace
