

Virginia Bradford Burton

January 29, 1925 - April 30, 2016

Virginia Aileen Burton, 91, of Easton, MD, and formerly of Severna Park and Ocean Pines, died on Saturday, April 30, 2016, at the University of Maryland Medical Center in Easton.

She was born on January 29, 1925, in Washington, DC, the daughter of the late Thomas Walter Bradford and Alice Winona Kelley Bradford. During the 1940's, she studied music under Herman Maril at the University of Maryland, where she also taught and played piano at university concerts. She married her childhood friend and sweetheart, the late Charles L. Burton, in 1947.

Mrs. Burton was an accomplished artist. Over a 50-year period, her paintings dealt with florals, seascapes, and western art. In the early years, she studied art under Catherine Wilkie Lessner and Leonard Bahr. She later studied with Ted Goerschner at the Scottsdale Artists School in Scottsdale, AZ; in Santa Fe, NM, and at the Easton Academy of Arts in Easton, MD. Mrs. Burton taught art at the Annapolis YWCA, Chesapeake College, the Ocean City Art League, and at the Art Institute and Gallery of Salisbury, MD. Painting with her maiden name, Bradford Burton, Mrs. Burton's works received numerous awards and ribbons, and are in private and corporate collections throughout the State.

Later in life, Mrs. Burton received an "Outstanding Achievement in Amateur Photography" from the International Society of Photographers, and was inducted into the Maryland Senior Citizens Hall of Fame in 2011.

Mrs. Burton is survived by a brother, Gary Bradford of Arlington, VA; a son, Chris Burton of Alexandria, VA; a daughter, Laurie Eichen of Severna Park, MD; two grandchildren, David Eichen and Jenna Petrosky and her husband Michael; and a great-grandson, Connor.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, May 4, 2016, from 5-7 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton, MD 21601.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, May 5, 2016, at 12 p.m. at Druid Ridge Cemetery, 7900 Park Heights Ave., Baltimore, MD 21208.
