

Virginia Lee Coleman

April 27, 1936 - February 16, 2026

Virginia Lee Coleman, 89, of Worton, Maryland, passed away peacefully on Monday, February 16, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family. Born on April 27, 1936, to Claudia and Kenneth Cronshaw, Virginia grew up with a deep appreciation for family, hard work, and the simple joys of life. She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Thomas Cronshaw, and his spouse, Ethel Mae.

Virginia married the love of her life, James Coleman, and together they shared more than 70 years of unwavering partnership, devotion, and laughter. Their life together was a testament to commitment and enduring love.

A woman of many talents and passions, Virginia dedicated part of her life to education, nurturing young minds with patience and care. She later channeled her creativity and entrepreneurial spirit into owning a restaurant and catering business, where her love of cooking became a gift she shared widely. She also spent time working in a bookstore, a natural fit for her love of stories and the written word. Whether she was preparing a meal, writing, or listening to classical music, Virginia approached everything with heart.

Above all, Virginia cherished her family. She is survived by her beloved husband, James; her children Melissa Thomas, Andy Coleman (Lisa), and Amy Crowding (Bill); and her grandchildren Emily Thomas, Katie Dethloff, Ryan Coleman, Brooke Thomas, and Gabriel Crowding. She took great joy in watching her family grow, thrive, and find their own paths, always offering encouragement, pride, and unconditional love.

Virginia's warmth, strength, and generous spirit touched all who knew her. She will be missed dearly and remembered always for the love she gave so freely. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 25 at 11:00 am at Union Cemetery in Worton.

“ I have not seen Miss Virginia in a very long time, but back in the day if this middle school country child could stay in town with her friends, the Ye Old Coffee Shoppe was the place we wanted to go. She was always so nice and didn't seem to mind putting up with us. I'm sorry for your loss and am keeping you all in my thoughts.
