“ Having known Karen Kessinger Booze for some 15+ years as my beloved friend & sister in Christ, I met Ms. Ginger by seeing her on several occasions with the Booze family...but it was not until I joined the Thursday night Healing Group study at KIUMC that I really came to know the beauty & love of Ms. Ginger Jones on a very personal level. This woman loves people like I've never experienced before & soon I adopted her as my own "surrogate" spiritual grandmother! Not a class went by that Ms. Ginger didn't hug me with her whole heart & speak life into mine. Full of grace, gratitude & wisdom I would transfix my ears to every word she spoke, and my eyes to her glowing face & beautiful blue eyes that radiated the love of Jesus! In those moments I felt at home in His heart, as if it were Jesus Himself speaking, loving & peering directly into my soul! Whenever anyone in our group was hurting & needed to feel the love of Christ, she would physically incarnate Him with an embrace that would immediately melt the hardest of wounded hearts. I would tell Karen, her granddaughter, often how amazing she was & how grateful she must be to have such a beautiful gramma...and she would just smile knowing exactly what I meant. Having never known THAT kind of unconditional love from my own grandmother, I quickly fell in love with her & never left her presence not feeling full & complete. Even in her last days as I visited her on her sickbed, her spirit was calling out for her One & Only--her arms, frail & weakened, would raise to the heavens in praise--a vision that will be forever imprinted in my heart & mind. Thank you, Jesus, for giving me the "gramma" I never had but always longed for in Ms. Ginger & a sister in Christ that made You as real as Your own touch! A woman that endured adversity by choosing to say (and believe!), "...but life was good!"...a phrase that encapsulates her grateful heart for You & one that will challenge me to see You in a whole new light & level of trust! Ms. Ginger, I love you! You have touched my life in ways you'll never know & my life will never be the same! Thank you for raising godly women that are part of my earthly family & whom I couldn't live without--Karen & Ms. Lee--beautiful friends, loving women & sisters in Christ! Until we meet again in glory, all my heart & love is yours!
