“ Virginia was truly a warm and giving person. Her dedication to her husband Ron was very apparent. My thoughts and prayers are with my brother Ron and his family. May they cherish her memory and find peace in the knowledge that she's has gone home to be with God.

“ I was also from Still Pond and grew up with Virginia and her family we all were very close, had a lot of fun, making mud pies, sledding down the hill on a car hood, and playing basket ball outside by a street light, they were the good old days. Virginia wil be sadly missed, but at least now she is not sick anymore, and she is home with the Lord and her loved ones.
