“ Time and distance have never changed my love for my dear friend Virginia. My greatest memories of her will always be when she was pregnant with the triplets. She was so excited to be a mom. Always make the effort to keep in touch with someone you hold so dear. Someday the choice may not be up to you. I will see you again one day, my friend.

“ Just a little rememberance about the last time I saw Virginia. It was when she and Chic were gassing up the van in Wye Mills. We talked about the children finishing their first year of college. She was so proud of children.

“ My heart broke when I read of the passing of Virginia Prince or as I knew her Trooper Prince. In the early 90's I was in a domestic violent marriage, At least twice a month The calls for help would go out and trooper Virginia Prince and others would arrive. Trooper Prince was kind, compassionate, and didn't judge me. even though I was 10 years older than her she was 10 years wiser than me. After about the umpteen time coming, trooper V. Prince sat me down and very professionally and kindly said to me. Pat one day you are going to call and I'm not going to get here in time to help you. It's funny how someone who should of been sick and tired of coming, was concerned that she wouldn't make it. Those words that day by Trooper V. Prince snapped something in me. I moved, I walked away from my abuser and never looked back. That was the last day I saw Her. I would always think of her and her words when I'd read about the birth of her children, her retirement from service, her many ventures, every time I saw the Prince name I would think of her and remember that day so many years ago. My heart and prayers go to Her husband and children, and her entire family. Gone to soon. Thank you Trooper Prince you will always have a special place in my heart. Patricia H.
