

Virginia Faye Pope

May 11, 2001

Virginia Faye Pope, 64, of Queenstown, MD, died at Easton Memorial Hospital in Easton on May 11th, 2001.

Born in Jonesboro, LA, she was the daughter of the late Claude D. & Addys [DePriest] Spurlock. She spent all of her formative years in LA. She attended college and obtained her BS and later her MA in Education. Moving to Maryland, she obtained a job with the Anne Arundel Board of Education. She taught school for 7 years before being promoted to the position of principal. She served in this capacity for a period spanning another 30 years. Her love of children and her hunger for knowledge made her a most viable asset to the school system. She retired in 1997.

Mrs. Pope loved Maryland's Eastern Shore area and during the summer months was an avid crabber. She also enjoyed reading, growing flowers, and being around her home and family. She enjoyed traveling and traveled extensively throughout the United States.

She is survived by a son, Andrew S. Pope III of Queenstown, MD, a sister, Loretta J. Spurlock of Baton Rouge, LA, 2 brothers, Steven M, Spurlock of Shreveport, LA and Ernest M. Spurlock of Minden, LA.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family.

The family suggest memorial contributions be made in her name to the charity of your choice.

All Arrangements where provided by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Chester,
