

Vivian B. North

September 20, 1926 - December 21, 2018

Vivian Marina Butt North passed away at The Pines on December 21, 2018, at the age of 92.

Vivian is predeceased by her husband of 45 years, Senator John Clarence North; her father, Harvey R. Butt, Sr.; her mother, Elizabeth O'Neil Butt; and her brother, Dr. Harvey R. Butt, Jr.

Vivian is lovingly remembered by her three children, John Clarence North, Jr., of Indianapolis, IN, Steven Matthew North of Easton, MD, Amy North Gagnon of Easton, MD, and her two grandchildren, Patrick Neil Gagnon of Annapolis, MD, and Katherine Eileen O'Neil Gagnon of Easton, MD, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Vivian was born in Norfolk, VA, on September 20, 1926. She graduated from Annapolis High School in 1943, attended school at Marion Jr. College in Marion, VA, and went on to earn a BA Degree in Art from George Peabody College for Teachers in Nashville, TN. She also had secretarial training in East Orange, NJ. She began her career as a junior stenographer in the State Office Building, Annapolis, MD, before moving on to a secretarial position at the U.S. Naval Engineering Experiment Station in Annapolis, MD. After she married her husband in 1953, she worked as his secretary in his private law practice in Easton, MD, until she had their first child in 1956. She earned her real estate license in 1978.

Vivian's favorite season of the year was summer as she enjoyed swimming more than any other outdoor sport. She excelled as a gardener, enjoyed all types of needlework and sewing, and was an avid reader.

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, December 29, at 11 a.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam in Easton, MD. Burial will be private to be held at a future date.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Talbot Hospice or the Alzheimer's Association.

The family wishes to extend their gratitude to Christ Church of Easton, Heartfields Assisted Living at Easton, The Pines, and Talbot Hospice for their support and care.
