“ As a student at Washington College in 1963, Walker introduced me to flying and I soloed in his Aeronca 7A C Champ in early 1964. From there I eventually progressed to an ATP rating and a flight officer position with American Airlines. Thank you Walker for your consideration and encouragement. Howard Eisemann

Walker was a wonderful person and very knowledgeable. I will miss our talks that we often had and all his help and knowledge he shared with me through the years. I know that you are at peace now and without pain. You were a great friend and teacher to me. You will be greatly missed.
