“ *Dad & Mom with their 2 grandsons David & Ryan
I love this picture of him, pure happiness
Dad, I'm so much like you it's not funny, you taught me so much, I didn't really appreciate it till I was older of course, & while there were plenty of times we butted heads, I always knew that you loved me & wanted only the best for me... Safe journeys, try not to give them too much trouble when you get there...
I will miss you tremendously
Love you always, Cathy* ❤️ 🥺 🙏

Aunt Dott, wanted to let you know I'm thinking of you at this difficult time. Every memory I have of Uncle Buzz brings a smile to my face. He will be dearly missed.

In loving memory of my brother Buz. I read this passage in the book of Healing After Loss and have found great comfort in it. Perhaps our experience with such mysteries (death) is a clue that we know only a small fraction of the Creator's good intention for us. It doesn't take the pain of separation away. But if we can think of it as temporary separation and not permanent-- well, that makes all the difference in the world! I will miss you.
