*My dear sweet brother,
You had a style all your own. Your smile was so contagious and your eyes always had a twinkle. Keith you were a man of your word and you were reliable.
You would light up a room with your warm and friendly personality. You never held anything against anyone...but then...you could hold your own.
You would share your love of motorcycles and classic cars with Jim whenever you would get together. You will forever be missed.
Life's circumstances didn't allow for us to be together like we would have liked...but we made the best of the times we had. You are loved dearly and we will always and forever miss you.
Diana, I know you loved Keith and he surely loved you, Emma, and the grandchildren. I know you are missing him.
Mike and Ryan I know you loved your dad very much and he surely loved you both as much. I know you will miss him. I am sure you will keep him alive in your memories.
Keith will be alive in our hearts and in our memories forever.
Love your sister, Molly and Jim Hayward*
