

Warren W. Watts Sr.

May 18, 2000

Warren W. Watts, Sr., 66 years of age, of Sarasota, FL, formally of Delaware City, PA, and Rock Hall, MD, died on May 18, at Doctors Hospital in Sarasota, FL.

Born in Delaware City, PA, he was the son of the late Phillip J. and Ruth [Crowding] Watts. He would spend all of his formative years in Delaware City and the Philadelphia areas.

Mr. Watts entered the service of his country, serving in the United States Marines during the Korean Conflict. He was honorably discharged and returned to civilian life. He moved to Maryland's Eastern Shore, settling in Rock Hall. He enjoyed the activities of the area and proved to be an avid sports fan. He loved hunting, fishing and crabbing.

During his working career in the area, he was self-employed and was known for his work in the waterfowl picking work. He remained in the area until 1989 when his residence burned. He and his wife, Candace, moved to Delaware for a short period prior to moving to Sarasota.

While in Sarasota, he founded the Warren W. Watts Courier Service, which he operated until his retirement in January or 2000.

Survivors in addition to his wife, Candace; include, two daughters, Patricia Capel of Chestertown, MD, Kathleen Miller of Aliquippa, PA; a step-daughter, Kelly C. Farina, of Lithia, FL; three sons, Warren W. Watts, Jr., of Upper Marlboro, MD, Stephen O Watts of Sedlarsville, MD, and Kenneth Watts of Westover, MD; a sister, Dorothy Gober of Drexel Hill, PA; two brothers, Robert H. Watts of Sarasota, FL, and Harry Watts of Swedesboro, NJ; and 11 grandchildren.

Services will be held on Saturday, May 27 @ 2 p.m. at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. 130 Speer Road, Chestertown, MD. Friends and family may call one hour prior to service. Reverend Gregory Straub will officiate. Interment will be in Wesley Chapel Cemetery in Rock Hall, MD, following the services at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggest memorial contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.
