

Washington Irving Tuttle IV

November 26, 1999

Washington Irving "Tut" Tuttle, IV, of Queenstown, MD, died Friday, November 26, 1999, at his home. He was 75.

Born on January 16, 1924, in Queenstown, he is the son of the late Washington Irving and Elizabeth Bishop Tuttle, III. He attended Centreville High School and graduated from the Charlotte Hall Military Academy in Southern Maryland. He served in the U.S. Army Airforce during WWII. He was stationed in the South Pacific, from Australia to Japan.

Mr. Tuttle returned from the war and became a carpenter – leading to boat building. He worked for Charlie Morgan, a Florida boat builder, for John Trumpie of Annapolis, MD, and for Knox Marina, of Camden, ME.

In 1964, he married Alma Lillian "Pam" Thomas, of Queenstown. She predeceased him in 1997.

Mr. Tuttle served one term as Commissioner for the Town of Queenstown in the 1960's and was a member of the Sierra Club of Easton, MD. He was Treasurer of Queenstown Volunteer Fire Department; served on the Vestry of Old Wye Church, in Wye Mills, MD; and was very active in environmental protection.

Mr. Tuttle worked on the B36, which was used at the end of the WWII for the Atomic Bomb. This plan was never used in combat but consisted of ten engines, four jets and six combustible engines for propellers.

He is survived by J. "Chip" Tuttle and David I. Tuttle, both of Queenstown; a sister, Shirley Freestate of Easton; and five grandchildren.

Memorial contributions can be made in Mr. Tuttle's name to the Hospice of Queen Anne's County, 300 Del Rhodes Ave., Queenstown, MD or the Sierra Club – Eastern Shore, 104 Quail Ln., Centreville, MD.

A memorial service will be held at The Old Wye Church in Wye Mills, MD, on Friday, December 3, at 11 a.m.
