“ I met Wayne when I transferred to St. Anthony's School in the 8th grade. He befriended me and we often walked home from school together. We became best friends and often sat on my front steps and talked for hours. He came from a big family and he looked forward to a family of his own. It sounds like he got his wish and I'm sure he was happy.

I was so sad to see his name in the Harford County paper. Although I haven't seen or heard from him in decades, I've always had fond memories of him and hoped that some day we might connect again and catch up on our lives. He was a bright light in my life when I needed it. He was very special and I'm a better person for knowing him. I too will miss him.

Would by chance be Shirley Delzangle? Please excuse the spelling. I have heard your name mentioned by Dad and Mom

Wayne Schisler - December 07, 2015 at 11:29 PM

SH

Yes, that's me. Although my last name is now Gorschboth.

When Wayne went into the service and his family moved to the Eastern Shore I totally lost track of him. I heard that he had married and I didn't think it proper to try to contact him. I was disappointed that he never contacted me. I do regret that we never saw one another again. He was very special to me and we were very young. I didn't know your mom and I can't imagine why my name was ever mentioned. Barbara and George might remember me. Maybe not though, after all this time.

I failed to say so before, but I am truly sorry for your loss.

My e-mail address is on this sight somewhere. I'm not into social media and since this sight is very public, I wonder is you would mind conversing with me through that avenue. Thank you.

Wayne, Brenda, Miss Nancy and your families, You are in my thoughts and prayers. Your family certainly has had a rough year or two with mom and dad's health concerns. You are a very supportive family and he loved you all very much. One of his greatest joys was speaking of your visits and showing me pictures drawn by the grandchildren. Big hugs to all of you.

Thank you so much Vicki. Your kind words are much appreciated.

Vicki, Thanks for your kind words. My Dad appreciated you and the kindness you showed toward him, especially the never ending coffee requests. I think you understood him better than most and know he did not want to be in any home or rehab. With that being known, you made his stay the best it could be. He wanted to come back to William Hill vs. The Pines. I had to explain to him leaving against medical advice, by a cab, at midnight assured he would not be able to go back to William Hill. He said I understand, I just could not stay there any longer and wanted to go home. He has no hard feelings, nor do I. My family and I are very fortunate that you were there and ended up being one of his nurses. Thanks for everything you did for me and my family.
