

Wayne Everett Jackl

January 29, 2003

Wayne Everett Jackl of Millington, MD died on January 29, 2003 of cancer at his home in loving care of his family. He was 57.

Born on September 3, 1945 in Menominee, Michigan, he was the son of Mary S. Jackl Roberts and the late Andrew M. Jackl.

He was educated in the Catholic and public schools of Menominee and received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Michigan in 1967. He received a Masters Degree in Library Science from the University of Maryland in 1971.

After pursuing a career in teaching, librarianship, counseling and business, he and his wife, Ruth, established Head of Chester Antiques in Millington, MD. Mr. Jackl enjoyed working in that business until his death.

He served his community through membership on several boards of directors, including Infinity Recycling, Inc. He served the town of Millington on the Environmental Committee of the Comprehensive Planning Commission and on the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Mr. Jackl is survived by his wife, Ruth and daughter, Evelyn, a college student, at home; his mother, Mary Roberts and his step-father Wesley Roberts of Menominee, Michigan; his brother, Jeffrey K. Jackl, of Oakland, California; his son, Andrew W. Jackl and Andrew's wife Kathy, of Clayton, NC; his daughter, Sylvia H. Bare and her husband Henry, of Apex, NC and by four grandchildren, Drew and Sarah Jackl, and Deanna and Wyatt Bare, all in North Carolina.

The family will receive friends at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Millington, MD at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, February 2, 2003. It will be followed immediately by a time of remembering and a shared covered-dish meal at the Millington Firehouse.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Worton Elementary School Relay for Life Team, C/O Sue Coleman, 11085 Worton Road, Worton, MD 21678.
