

W. Dake Cooper

March 2, 1955 - November 1, 2010

W. Dake Cooper passed away after a long and courageous battle from complications with cancer on November 1, 2010. He was 55 years old.

Born in Easton on March 2, 1955, he was the son of the late, James A. Cooper, Sr. and Cathleen Saucer Cooper, who was formerly of Buckhannon, WV. A 1973 graduate of St. Michaels High School, Mr. Cooper worked at Waverly Press, which later became Cadmus Journal Services. On March 21, 1981, he married his loving wife, Ellen Cooper, nee Flynn.

Mr. Cooper was a member of Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Easton, MD.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his son, Jonathan Ryan Cooper of Easton; his brother, James A. Cooper of St. Michaels; and his sister, Shelia Ventner of West Virginia.

Friends may call at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Easton on Monday, November 8 from 9:00 – 10:00 am.

A funeral liturgy will be celebrated at 12:00 pm on Monday, November 8 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Cordova.

Burial will follow at St. Joseph's Cemetery in Cordova.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, Mid-Atlantic Division, 92 Read's Way, Suite 205, New Castle, DE 19720.

“ Dake,
We can still picture your in your youth when you lived here in Buckhannon.
Your red hair, your politeness, and just plain likeability.
Your "Aunt Sis" (Marcelene) and cousins Tim and Sheri-Lyn feel the same too.
Your passing leaves a void in our lives too.

“ I worked with Dake at Waverly Press/Cadmus for 23yrs and my husband Donnie worked there 15 yrs. We were both very good friends with Dake, it was a privilege to know him.
Even on a bad day for him, he always had a smile and good wish for others. God Bless you and my sympathy to your family and our loss from our Cadmus family.

“ I worked with Dake for 10 years at Cadmus. He was a wonderful and courageous man. I am sorry he has lost his battle, but he has won the war, he is at peace now.###imported-begin##Debby

“ When I started working at Cadmus, Dake was one of the first names I became familiar with because I heard it so much. If a dept needed help, it was normal to hear, "We called Dake in." or "Dake came in and helped us out." His commitment & dedication was unmatched. On top of it all, he had a lot of heart and a sense of humor. It was a privilege to know him.

Dake, you fought a hard battle and it is time to rest. God Bless You and my heartfelt sympathies to your family.##imported-begin##Dottie McCracken##imported-end##
