

Wilbur Hubbard Brinsfield

December 2, 1938 - April 10, 2013

Wilbur Hubbard Brinsfield of Crumpton, MD, died on Wednesday, April 10, 2013, at Chester River Hospital Center. He was 74.

Born on December 2, 1938, in Chestertown, MD, he was the son of the late Wilbur S. and Mary Bouchelle Brinsfield. Mr. Brinsfield went to grade school in Crumpton and later attended Washington College for a few years. In the summer months in his 20's, he worked as a lifeguard at Ocean City, then it was either be drafted or join, so he enrolled in the Navy and benefited from two solid years of Naval technical schools, including electronics and computer systems. After being honorably discharged in 1966, he began work as a computer systems analyst and specialist with RCA, working six years on research and development for the Naval weapons system, AEGIS, two years at Goddard Space Flight Center on the LANDSAT program, and a couple of years as onsite engineer for RCA IVCS systems at a Naval teaching facility.

In 1981 he began doing what he loves, ACTING. He has been performing as an actor and entertainer, on stage, in films and on TV, and at conventions, fairs, and at various events ever since. His film credits can be seen on IMDB.com, but he was particularly proud to work with Jack Nicholson, Susan Sarandon, Michelle Pfeiffer, and Cher in the Witches of Eastwick.

Bill Brinsfield is survived by his children, Joie Riddle of San Diego, CA, Justin Brinsfield and Aurora Brinsfield both of Los Angeles, CA; five grandchildren, Benjamin, Kate, Dallin, Claire, Lauren, and 'Santas little helper' Riddle. They lovingly refer to him as "Magic Grandpa."

Bill Brinsfield's love for everyone and his contagious laugh will be deeply missed. A visitation will be held Thursday, April 25, 2013, from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, 370 Cypress St., Millington, MD. A graveside service will follow the visitation at 11a.m. in Crumpton Cemetery.

Bill's children have set up a memorial fund to assist in paying for the memorial services. We kindly ask that in lieu of flowers or other gifts, you donate to the fund instead. If you are able to assist with this in any amount we would greatly appreciate it. Thank you very much. <https://fundrazr.com/campaigns/6UTy7>
