“ Bill and his wife, Jenny, were faithful members of Eastern Shore Baptist Church for many years. As his Pastor for the past 16 months, I found Bill to have a willing heart and a faithful spirit in spite of many physical problems that many others would have used for an excuse. I certainly appreciated his faithful support and friendship. I look forward to seeing him again in Gloryland!

“ I have so many memories of Mr. Bill growing up— my dad is Pastor Jon 😊
the summer carnival was in his backyard, so we would watch fireworks from his home. Sitting on the couch his while the pugs said hello, with animal planet on in the background. Riding on the back of his motorcycles. Him letting us borrow a few DVDs from his massive collection. He printed the weekly bulletin for church, him and Ms. Jenny were there every Sunday with their Bibles wide open. I remember attending his retirement ceremony as a 10 year old. We will miss you Mr. Bill! Condolences to Ms. Jenny and your family. ~Liz Bundy
